Project Description: STUDY, Local Government/Inter Agency Partnership

This project involves several participants and funding sources: Utah Transit Authority, University of Utah, Salt Lake City, Wasatch Front Regional Council and UDOT. Its goal is to complete a land use and transportation corridor study for the Foothill Blvd Corridor in Salt Lake City. The Wasatch Front Urban Area Long Range Transportation Plan Update 2004-2030 identified the development of a BRT line along Foothill Blvd., and the widening of Foothill from 2300 East south. The purpose of this project is to assist in the further analysis of and presentation of a detailed planning level proposal for the Foothill Blvd Corridor.

The study is estimated to cost $250,000. A consultant should be under contract by the spring 2007
